Press Release: Policy Forum Guyana in collaboration with artist Nix Butler Celebrates Earth Day Success with Innovative Environmental Initiatives

Georgetown, Guyana - 22nd April, 2024 - Policy Forum Guyana extends its heartfelt gratitude to all participants, supporters, and collaborators who contributed to the success of our Earth Day activities themed "Policy Forum Guyana Plastic-Free Paradise." Held on Sunday, April 21st, 2024, at the Boardwalk on the Seawall near the Decked-Out Bar, the event brought together over 200 individuals committed to environmental stewardship and sustainability.

In collaboration with Nigel Butler, J's Cocktails, Decked Out Bar, and Darthan Printery, Policy Forum Guyana organized a series of engaging activities aimed at raising awareness about plastic pollution and promoting sustainable living practices. Among the highlights were:

1. Sustainable Development Goals Memory Game

2. Life-Size Eco-Snake and Ladder Game
3. Environmentally Themed Virgin Cocktails
4. Artwork Exhibition featuring students from Queens College and New Central High

The event also marked the launch of Policy Forum Guyana's second book, "Wayne's Plastic Predicament," addressing challenges and solutions associated with plastic waste management in Guyana that would appeal to youths.

Policy Forum Guyana expresses sincere appreciation to our sponsors for their generous support:

- Guyana Atlantic Marine Supplies Inc.
- The Gift Centre
- JARS Zero-Waste
- Health Depot
- Sure Taxi Service

Your contributions were instrumental in bringing our vision to life and demonstrating the power of community collaboration in effecting positive change.

As we celebrate Earth Day under the theme "Planet vs. Plastics," let us reaffirm our commitment to protecting our planet for future generations. By working together and embracing sustainable practices, we can build a cleaner, greener future for all.
